

City News In Brief

(From Thursday's Daily)

Here for Week-end

H. L. Harris of Phoenix passed the week-end here. Mrs. Harris is in Prescott for the summer.

Humboldt Visitor

J. J. Fennett, well known resident of Humboldt, passed yesterday in Prescott on business.

Visit Relatives

Mrs. J. D. Ryan and her daughter have gone to their former home in Cleveland, Ohio, to visit relatives until fall.

Goes to East

Julian B. Downey, manager of the local Standard Oil company, has gone to Cleveland, Ohio, for a couple of weeks.

Goes to Mayer

Bert Tilton, a candidate for the democratic nomination for supervisor, drove to Mayer yesterday in the interests of his campaign.

Visits Daughter

Mrs. A. Boice of Tempe, mother of Mrs. Ina Lange of Groom Creek, is passing a few weeks here as the guest of her daughter.

Visits Sister

Mrs. Robert Ford of Mayer, who came in to Prescott Tuesday, yesterday went to Cottonwood to visit her sister.

Phoenix Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Dowdy of Phoenix are passing a few days in the city. They are registered at the St. Michael.

Mayer Visitor

J. McCarthy, well known resident of Mayer, was among visitors in the city yesterday.

Mining Man Here

R. E. Logan, mining man of Kirkland, was in the city yesterday, calling at the county recorder's office on business.

From Jerome

James Roach, veteran mining man of Jerome, drove over from the other side of Mingus yesterday to transact business and greet his friends here.

Visits Mother

Mrs. Mary Johnson and her children, accompanied by Miss Amy Hight, are in the city from Glendale, visiting Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Otto Lange, Sr.

Goes to Mayer

Alfred Gale of Anderson, Gale & Nilsson, a candidate for the republican nomination for county attorney, yesterday went to Mayer in the interest of his campaign.

Goes to Coast

H. J. McClung, president of the Phoenix National bank, yesterday left for California, after a short stay in Prescott. Mrs. McClung and the family are passing the summer here.

C. L. Stack Here

C. L. Stack returned to Phoenix after a few weeks with his family, who are spending the summer here. During his visit they visited the Grand canyon.

Returns from North

C. U. Pickrell, county agricultural agent, returned yesterday from the Navajo Indian reservation, where he went with M. E. Musgrave, head of the predatory animal extermination department of the state biological survey.

Here from South

Mrs. C. R. M. Fall of Tucson arrived in Prescott yesterday, registering at the Congress hotel.

Here from Mayer

Merton W. Stewart was in the city yesterday from Mayer, having driven in on Tuesday.

Phoenix Visitor

M. R. Smith of Phoenix is passing a few days in the city on business. He arrived late Tuesday.

From Jerome

Ellen Figueroa of Jerome drove to Prescott yesterday to pass the day shopping and visiting friends.

Here on Business

Among business visitors in the city are H. B. Fosburg of Phoenix and D. M. Tucker of Santan.

From Ash Fork

R. L. Severn of Ash Fork is among visitors in Prescott.

From Douglas

Coming from her home in Douglas, Mrs. J. F. Hickman is passing a few days in Prescott.

From the North

H. E. Haron, resident of Williams, came down from the main line Tuesday to transact business in this city.

From Phoenix

W. L. Weast, resident of Phoenix, is passing a few days in Prescott on business.

From the East

Miss Emily Hollingworth has arrived in Prescott from her home in Russellville, Ind. She is registered at the Prescott hotel.

From Wickenburg

Mrs. F. B. Johnson yesterday came up to Prescott from her home in Wickenburg to pass a few days visiting in this city.

Return to Home

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bloomer have returned to their home in Cashion after a visit of a few days in Prescott.

Phoenix Visitor

Among visitors in the city from the south is S. F. Dean, who arrived yesterday on business from his home in Phoenix.

From Colorado

Walter G. Stackett of Ft. Collins, Colo., is passing a few days in Prescott on business. He arrived yesterday.

From the South

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Schell of Phoenix arrived from the south yesterday, planning to pass several days in this city.

From the South

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Ketcham of Glendale and Charles Ketcham of Phoenix are visiting in Prescott. They arrived yesterday, registering at the Head hotel.

Back from Conference

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tally of Jerome have returned from Bisbee, where Mr. Tally, general manager of the United Verde Copper company, attended the Arizona state tax conference.

Goes to Camp Verde

J. D. McCully, superintendent of the Albuquerque division of the Santa Fe coast lines, with headquarters at Winslow, was in the city yesterday on business at the local offices.

U. of A. Agent

Dean William Scarlett, a member of the board of regents of the University of Arizona, is passing a few days in Prescott. Dean Scarlett, formerly of the Episcopal diocese of Phoenix, is now rector of an Episcopal church in St. Louis.

Rain General

Rain in the Mayer and Humboldt districts between 5 and 6 o'clock yesterday evening was general, it was reported last night by W. M. Roberts upon his return from a trip to that district. The roads were slippery and in places rutted by the passage of machines during the rain. The Lynx creek hill was in good shape for travel yesterday evening.

(From Friday's Daily)

Punteney Visitor

J. T. Sheffield, resident of Punteney, came in from there Wednesday to transact business in Prescott.

In from Mine

"Deacon" Skinner was in the city on business yesterday from the Pochontas mine near Mayer.

Returns from Coast

H. J. Norris of Norris & Norris returned Wednesday night from Los Angeles, where he has been recently on business.

Goes to Sawtelle

John Bartlett, disabled ex-service man who has been in Prescott for the past week, yesterday left for Sawtelle, Calif., to enter the soldiers' home.

From the South

J. A. Rober of the Santa Fe force at Wickenburg, was a visitor in the city yesterday, registered at the Head hotel.

Return to Phoenix

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Schell of Phoenix, who have been in Prescott for the past couple of days, yesterday afternoon returned to the south.

Here for Summer

Mrs. Mary C. Stricker, who arrived from Tucson the other day, is planning to remain in Prescott for the rest of the summer.

Goes to Coast

Henry Ritter, well known cattleman of Hillside, yesterday afternoon went to Los Angeles for a short stay.

Down from North

Elmer Baumgardner, a resident of Kingman, came down from the main line yesterday to pass a few days here on business.

Goes to Junction

J. Link Smith yesterday went out to the Jerome Junction and Prescott Farms district in the interests of his campaign for the republican nomination for sheriff.

Goes to North

Gary Vyne yesterday went to Ash Fork to enter a bid of Vyne Brothers Electric company for electrical work on the new school building there.

Goes to Jerome

Harry Funk, of Vyne Brothers' Electric company, yesterday went to Jerome in connection with electrical installations being done by the company at the Verde Central mine.

Return from Ranch

Mrs. Charles Steele and her daughter, Miss Ruth Steele, have returned from the C. P. Mullen ranch at Hillside, where they have been visiting for the past several days. Mrs. and Miss Steele are passing the summer here from their home in Phoenix.

From Peoples Valley

Dan Genuig of Peoples valley was a visitor in the city yesterday, calling on his sister, Mrs. Grace Chapman.

From Williamson

Mrs. S. W. Webb of Williamson valley, drove in to town yesterday on a short shopping trip.

Cattleman Here

Ray Frazer, well known cattleman of Lynx creek, drove to Prescott on business yesterday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Frazer.

From Clemenceau

Deputy Sheriff John Munds, a candidate for the democratic nomination for sheriff, accompanied by John S. Spears, well known resident of Clemenceau, drove to Prescott yesterday on business.

Telephone Official

H. T. Jennings, district manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, with headquarters at Phoenix, came up from the south yesterday on company business in this end of the state.

Is Improved

Word has been received here by friends of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, who went to Los Angeles Sunday, that Mr. Anderson is recovering from his recent serious illness.

Go to California

R. N. Fredericks, president of the Prescott State bank, accompanied by Mrs. Fredericks, is planning to leave for San Francisco Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Fredericks will be away for about a month.

Reports Good Rain

C. P. Wingfield, well known merchant of Humboldt, drove in to the city yesterday to attend to business matters. He reports that quite a good rain fell in the Humboldt and Mayer region during the past two days.

In from Springs

Mrs. Sid Ross, wife of the president of the Arizona Automobile association, drove to town yesterday from Iron Springs, where she is passing the summer.

Visit Skull Valley

Emmet T. Morrison and Louis Bunte returned last night from the Skull Valley and Peoples Valley districts, where they went Wednesday in the interests of Mr. Morrison's campaign for the republican nomination for county attorney.

Return from Jerome

C. T. Joslin, secretary of the Verde Central Copper company, accompanied with Tom Collins of Pasadena, prominent mining man and a stockholder in the Verde Central, is expected to return from Jerome today.

Return to Tucson

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Bernard are planning to return to their home in Tucson today, following the close of the present session of the United States district court here. Mr. Bernard is United States attorney.

Goes to Coast

C. J. Bright, agent of the United States department of justice, who was a witness in the Lem Simpson "dope" case tried before the U. S. district court here this week, yesterday afternoon left for Los Angeles on business.

Birth of Girls

Two Prescott households are rejoicing over the arrival of baby girls this week. To Mr. and Mrs. Robert Connell, of 242 South Mt. Vernon, was born an eight-pound girl at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, at Mercy hospital, and to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of 236 South Mt. Vernon was born an eight-pound girl at 2 a. m., Tuesday morning at Mercy hospital. Mothers and daughters are well.

Visit the Canyon

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McNally, Miss Genevieve McNally and Joseph McNally are passing the week-end at the Grand canyon.

Go to Coast

Mrs. H. T. Southworth and her daughter, Dorothy Fay, yesterday afternoon left for Los Angeles to remain for several weeks.

To Visit Canyon

Mr. and Mrs. Rick McFall are planning to drive to the canyon before returning to their home in Tucson. McFall is clerk of the federal district court.

Visit Parents Here

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. McLane of Kingman are in the city to pass the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. McLane and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMurchie.

Goes to Chicago

Mrs. Nellie H. Nelson of 209 South Pleasant street, plans to leave for Chicago today, to attend the wedding of her daughter, Miss Ora Nelson, to Mr. Edward T. Taylor. Miss Nelson is an artist. Mr. Taylor is in the lumber business. After the wedding, Mrs. Nelson will visit her son in Minneapolis.

Attends Convention

R. E. Morrison, who has been in the east recently on business, yesterday was attending the national convention of the Knights of Columbus at Atlantic City. From there he will go to Washington on business before returning to Prescott about August 4th. Mr. Morrison is vice-supreme master of the fourth degree of the Knights of Columbus for the district of Junipero Serra, including the western United States.

(From Saturday's Daily)

To Give Show

Will Raymond, advance agent of the Walker Shows, is in Prescott arranging for the appearance of the Walker Shows here the week of August 14.

From the South

Mrs. A. E. Haage of Peoria came up from the south Thursday and will be in the city for the week-end.

From the North

G. W. Marshall, resident of Flagstaff, is passing a few days here on business.

Entertains at Springs

Mrs. Sidney Ross yesterday entertained at Iron Springs, her guests including friends from Jerome, Humboldt and Prescott.

Phoenix Visitors

J. P. McConkey and I. A. Florian, both of Phoenix, are visiting in Prescott for a few days on business.

From the East

F. H. Hanson of New York city, is among business visitors in Prescott. He arrived on Thursday and is registered at the St. Michael hotel.

Auditor Here

William Raymond, Western Union Telegraph company auditor from San Francisco, is here on business at the local telegraph office.

Mining Men

J. B. Tomlinson and his son, Ed Tomlinson, who are operating properties in the Venezia district, drove in from there to pass a few days in the city on business.

Returns to Dewey

J. E. Brown, rancher of Dewey, returned here yesterday after a short business stay in the city.

From Crown King

E. M. Foltz, who is operating a mine in the Bradshaws, is passing a few days in Prescott, coming down from Crown King.

From Jerome

Mrs. R. E. Tally and Mrs. A. C. Carlson of Jerome and Mrs. R. K. Duffy of Clarkdale drove to Prescott yesterday to pass the afternoon with friends.

From the Coast

Coming down from his home in Barstow, Calif., J. C. Sears is among visitors in this city. He is here on business and is registered at the St. Michael hotel.

Returns to Cherry

Thomas Sutcliffe, well known mining man of Cherry, came in to the city on Thursday to transact business, and return to his home yesterday.

From Humboldt

Mrs. G. M. Colvocoresses, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Janssen and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corwin of Humboldt drove to Prescott yesterday to attend a "good fellowship" party at the Hassayampa Country club-house.

Here from Jerome

Driving over from Jerome on business for the Jerome Superior Mining company, Bert Campbell and U. J. Schroeder were in the city yesterday.

Federal Men Leave

Clyde Kuback and A. J. Bolles, who arrived Thursday from Cleveland, Ohio, left the city yesterday. Bolles and Kuback are in the employ of the federal government.

Mining Man Here

Joseph Warner, mining man of Bolado, is passing a few days in the city on business.

Visit Few Days

Rollin Ainsworth, R. L. Gunn and B. P. Plano are passing a few days in the city, driving in from Walnut Creek.

Goes to Phoenix

Judge William H. Sawtelle, federal judge for Arizona, left for Phoenix Thursday afternoon, after the close of the recent session of the United States district court in this city.

Returns from Trip

Robert Munro, deputy supervisor of the Prescott National forest, is expected to return tonight from the Cherry Creek district, where he has been on forest business.

Go to Los Angeles

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Watson yesterday afternoon left for Los Angeles for several days. As general manager of the Prescott Gas & Electric company, Mr. Watson will attend to some company business on the coast.

To Visit Daughter

Mrs. Effie Houghton of this city has gone to California to visit her daughter at Hollywood for two weeks. Mrs. Houghton's novelty rooms will be closed until August 15.

Returns to Home

J. C. Raymond, president of the Mesa district chamber of commerce, has returned to his home in Mesa after a visit of a week in this city. Mrs. Raymond and their two sons are passing the summer in Prescott.

Mining Men Here

W. B. Groves of Flagstaff and L. B. Elliot of Colorado Springs are in the city on business in connection with mining properties in this vicinity. Mr. Elliot will be here for some time. The two mining men are registered at the St. Michael hotel.

Go to Coast

Judge and Mrs. Richard Lamson yesterday afternoon left for Los Angeles. After a visit of several days there they will go to San Francisco, where Judge Lamson will attend the annual convention of the American Bar association, August 9-10.

Here on Business

C. E. Beach, manager of a Phoenix Oil company, is passing a few days in the city on business, having nix oil company, is passing a few returned from a trip to Humboldt with Ben Ward, manager of the Upton Oil company.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Ranch Business

J. M. Nee of Hillside is in the city for a few days to transact business.

In on Business

Mr. and Mrs. Tad Mullen of Ton-ton basin passed yesterday in Prescott on business.

Clemenceau Visitor

George W. Prince, superintendent of the United Verde Extension smelter at Clemenceau, was a visitor here yesterday on business.

Mining Man Here

J. J. Jackson, mining man of Skull Valley, is in the city to transact business and visit friends. He will be here over the week-end.

Return Today

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Mullen of Skull Valley, who have been spending the last couple days in Prescott, plan to return to their home today.

Here Over Sunday

A. R. Headley and Clarence Cornwall are passing Sunday in Prescott, having driven in from Hillside.

Billy Simon Here

Billy Simon is passing the week-end with friends in Prescott, coming in from the ranch of the Hayes Cattle company in Peoples valley.

From Groom Creek

G. C. Mackin of Groom Creek is passing the week-end with friends in Prescott, having come down from his mining camp yesterday.

Back from Bisbee

C. E. Gentry, county assessor, and Eric Lindholt, deputy assessor, have returned from Bisbee, where they attended the Arizona state tax conference.

From Tempe

W. J. Van Spankeren of Tempe, who has been in the city recently with his family, is planning to leave for his home tomorrow.

Return to Phoenix

Mr. and Mrs. Irby Henderson, who have been visiting in the northern part of the state and for the past week at Pine Dells, are returning today to Phoenix, where Mr. Henderson is in the grocery business.